SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT BETWEEN
MISSOURI REAL ESTATE COMMISSION AND LUCY A. FEIGHT

Come now Lucy A. Feicht ("Licensee") and the Missouri Real Estate Commission ("Commission") and enter into this Settlement Agreement for the purpose of resolving the question of whether Feicht's licenses as a real estate broker associate and real estate broker will be subject to discipline.

Pursuant to the terms of § 536.060, RSMo,¹ the parties hereto waive the right to a hearing by the Administrative Hearing Commission of the State of Missouri ("AHC") regarding cause to discipline the Licensee's licenses, and, additionally, the right to a disciplinary hearing before the Commission under § 621.110, RSMo.

Licensee acknowledges that Licensee understands the various rights and privileges afforded Licensee by law, including the right to a hearing of the charges against Licensee; the right to appear and be represented by legal counsel; the right to have all charges against Licensee proven upon the record by a preponderance of the evidence; the right to cross-examine any witnesses appearing at the hearing against Licensee; the right to present evidence on Licensee's own behalf at the hearing; the right to a decision upon the record by a fair and impartial administrative hearing commissioner concerning the charges pending against Licensee and, subsequently, the right to a disciplinary hearing before the Commission at which time Licensee may present evidence in mitigation of discipline; and the right to recover attorney's fees incurred in defending this action against Licensee's licenses. Being aware of these rights provided Licensee by operation of law, Licensee knowingly and voluntarily waives each and every one of these rights and freely enters into this Settlement Agreement and agrees to abide by the terms of this document, as they pertain to Licensee.

Licensee acknowledges that Licensee has received a copy of the documents relied upon by the Commission in determining there was cause to discipline Licensee's licenses, along with citations to law and/or regulations the Commission believes were violated.

For the purpose of settling this dispute, Licensee stipulates that the factual allegations contained in this Settlement Agreement are true and stipulates with the Commission that Licensee's broker associate license, numbered 2018003197 and broker license, numbered 2012011429 are subject to disciplinary action by the Commission in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 621 and §§ 339.010-339.205 and 339.710-339.855, RSMo.

Joint Stipulation of Facts and Conclusions of Law

1. The Commission is an agency of the state of Missouri created and established pursuant to § 339.120, RSMo, for the purpose of licensing all persons engaged in the practice as a real estate broker or salesperson in this state. The Commission has control and supervision of the licensed occupations and enforcement of the terms and provisions of Sections 339.010-339.205 and 339.710-339.855, RSMo.
2. Licensee, Lucy A. Feicht, holds a real estate broker associate license from the Commission. The Commission issued Licensee's broker associate license number 2018003197 on January 29, 2018. Licensee's license expires June 30, 2020 and was current and active at all times herein. Licensee also holds a real estate broker license, license number 2012011429, issued by the Commission April 2, 2012. Licensee's broker license expires June 30, 2020 and was current and active at all times herein. Feicht is the designated broker for Lou Realty Group LLC.
3. On July 15, 2018, the Commission mailed the 2018-2020 renewal to Licensee Katherine Ann Campbell ("Campbell") at Campbell's home address on file with the Commission. Campbell is affiliated with Lou Realty LLC and Lucy A. Feicht is her designated broker. On September 12, 2018, the Commission mailed a second notice of the 2018-2020 renewal to Campbell at the home address on file with the Commission.
4. On September 26, 2018, the Commission received Campbell's 2018-2020 renewal form and her $40.00 renewal fee. On September 26, 2018, the Commission returned Campbell's renewal form to her because Campbell did not sign it. The Commission's rejection of her renewal also stated that Campbell must return the renewal within three weeks of the date of the rejection to avoid delinquent penalties.
5. On March 18, 2019, the Commission received Campbell's renewal form and late fee and renewed Campbell's license.
6. On March 26, 2019, the Commission sent Campbell a letter asking Campbell to respond to the Commission with any activity while Campbell's license was expired. On May 7, 2019, the Commission sent a second request to Campbell asking Campbell to report any activity while her license was expired.
7. On May 22, 2019, the Commission received Campbell's response stating she had seven real estate transactions where contracts were written and closed after her license expired. She received $28,386.86 in commissions from those transactions. She stated she also had four transactions where the contracts were written before her license expired but closed after her license expired. Campbell made $9,725.02 in commission on those transactions. Campbell also stated she showed two houses one of which went under contract and the other an offer was made while her license was expired.

Licensee Campbell's license was expired for five months and 18 days.

8. Licensee's conduct, as described in paragraphs 3 through 7 above, allowing an affiliated agent to offer real estate services without a properly current and valid Missouri license, constitutes cause to discipline Licensee's license.

9. Section 339.020, RSMo, states:

It shall be unlawful for any person, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, association, professional corporation, or corporation, foreign or domestic, to act as a real estate broker, real estate broker-salesperson, or real estate salesperson or to advertise or assume to act as such without a license first procured from the commission.

10. Regulation 20 CSR 2250-4.020(2) states, in relevant part:

11. Cause exists for the Commission to take disciplinary action against Licensee's license under § 339.100.2(15), (19) and (23), RSMo, which states in pertinent part:

2. 10. The terms of discipline shall include that Licensee shall pay a civil penalty in the amount of $500.00 pursuant to § 339.100.3, RSMo. The civil penalty shall be made by CERTIFIED CHECK payable to the "Missouri Real Estate Commission" and mailed to the Missouri Real Estate Commission, PO Box 1339, Jefferson City, MO 65102-1339. Said check must be postmarked or hand delivered within 60 days of the effective date of this Settlement Agreement. Funds received pursuant to this Order shall be handled in accordance with Section 7 of Article IX of the Missouri Constitution and Section 339.205.8, RSMo. Respondent's failure to pay the full amount of the $500.00 civil penalty within sixty days of the effective date of this Order shall constitute a violation of this Order.

11. This Agreement does not bind the Commission or restrict the remedies available to it concerning facts or conduct not specifically mentioned in this Agreement that are either now known to the Commission or may be discovered.

12. This Agreement does not bind the Commission or restrict the remedies available to it concerning any future violations by Licensee of Chapter 339, RSMo, as amended, or the regulations promulgated thereunder, or of the terms of this Agreement.

13. All parties agree to pay all their own fees and expenses incurred as a result of this case, its settlement or any litigation.

14. The parties to this Agreement understand that the Missouri Real Estate Commission will maintain this Agreement as an open record of the Commission as provided in Chapters 339, 610 and 324, RSMo.

15. The terms of this Settlement Agreement are contractual, legally enforceable, and binding, not merely recital. Except as otherwise provided herein, neither this Settlement Agreement nor any of its provisions may be changed, waived, discharged, or terminated, except by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom the enforcement of the change, waiver, discharge, or termination is sought.

16. Licensee, together with Licensee's heirs and assigns, and Licensee's attorneys, do hereby waive, release, acquit and forever discharge the Commission, its respective members and any of its employees, agents, or attorneys, including any former Commission members, employees, agents, and attorneys, of, or from, any liability, claim, actions, causes of action, fees, costs and expenses, and compensation, including but not limited to, any claims for attorney's fees and expenses, including any claims pursuant to § 536.087, RSMo, or any claim arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, which may be based upon, arise out of, or relate to any of the matters raised in this case, its settlement, or from the negotiation or execution of this Settlement Agreement. The parties acknowledge that this paragraph is severable from the remaining portions of this Settlement Agreement in that it survives in perpetuity even in the event that any court of law deems this Settlement Agreement or any portion thereof to be void or unenforceable.

17. If no contested case has been filed against Licensee, Licensee has the right, either at the time the Settlement Agreement is signed by all parties or within fifteen days thereafter, to submit the Agreement to the Administrative Hearing Commission for determination that the facts agreed to by the parties to the Settlement Agreement constitute grounds for denying or disciplining the licenses of Licensee. If Licensee desires the Administrative Hearing Commission to review this Agreement, Licensee may submit this request to: Administrative Hearing Commission, P.O. Box 1557, United States Post Office Building, 131 West High St, Jefferson City, MO 65102-1557.

18. If Licensee has requested review, Licensee and Commission jointly request that the Administrative Hearing Commission determine whether the facts set forth herein are grounds for disciplining Licensee's licenses and issue findings of fact and conclusions of law stating that the facts agreed to by the parties are grounds for disciplining Licensee's licenses. Effective the date the Administrative Hearing Commission determines that the agreement sets forth cause for disciplining Licensee's license, the agreed upon discipline set forth herein shall go into effect. If the Administrative Hearing Commission issues an order stating that the Settlement Agreement does not set forth cause for discipline, then the Commission may proceed to seek discipline against Licensees as allowed by law. If the Licensee does not submit the Agreement to the Administrative Hearing Commission for determination, the Agreement shall become effective fifteen (15) days following the signature of the Commission's Executive Director.
